Proceedings of Both the Senate and House.

THE DAY SPENT IN LONG DEBATES

Correction of the Congressional Record Furnishes the Topic of Discussion in the Upper Branch-Several Public Building Bills Passed-Other National News.

WASHINGTON, March 12.-The senate vesterday debated at length the resolution to correct the report in the congressional record of the speech made by Mr. Call, on the political assassinations in Florida.

The credentials of Mr. Allison for his new term were presented and filed.

Mr. Morrill offered a resolution, which was agreed to, directing the secretary of the treasury to report any information constipation. Syrup of Figs is the in his possession in regard to the authorization of a lottery company, by the Indian Territory government, of the Creek nation.

Mr. Hoar called up the resolution of the committee on privileges and elections to eliminate from the record sentences interpolated by Mr. Call in his report of his remarks in debate with Mr. Chandler some weeks ago.

Mr. George said the resolution was without a precedent, the debate had been characterized by extreme acrimony and bitter personal allusions. He argued that while there was a verbal change in Mr Call's remarks, there was no change may not have it on hand will procure it promptly for any one who wishes to try it. Do not accept any substitute.

CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO.

Mr Call's remarks, there was no change of meaning. He admitted that Mr. Call's reference to "Banquo's ghost" was in bad taste. There had been a time when personalities in the senate had led to personal conflict. But now there was no safer place in God's creation for a more who desired to insult another with man who desired to insult another with impunity. It was no evidence of want of courage that a senator about whom insulting language had been used on the floor did not call the speaker to a personal account. How, then, was the senator from New Hampshire injured? Why in the act that he had not the fisherw man's opportunity to be a black-

Mr. Hoar said that the senator from Mississippi misunderstood the resolution. He himself acquitted the senator from Florida of any desire to escape censure or responsibility. He did not think it true that there was no substantial change made in the remarks. Mr. Hoar alluded to some jesting remarks made by Mr. George, and said that the senator from Mississippi took a comic almanac view of the lamentable public occurrence which had given rise to this proceeding. He did not propose that a man's cham-ber at midnight should be a safer place than the floor of the senate from which to send out poisonous arrows.

Mr. Eustis said that the order asked by the committee implied a caucus.

Mr. Edmonds asked Mr. Eustis whether he defended the propriety of printing a paragraph which had not been uttered in the presence of the senator to whom it alluded.

Mr. Eustis wanted to know what the committee had found Mr. Call guilty of. Certainly not on the falsification of the record, or that he had violated the custom of the senate, for on this the committee was absolutely silent. There was not, he said, a single exaggeration in what was inserted in the record as compared with what was publicly uttered on the floor. The language was not the same but the accusation was the same, although he confessed that the language inserted in the record was probably a lit-tle more flowery than the language uttered on the floor.

Mr. Edmunds proceeded to explain the point of the arguments to which he applied his allusions to the Louisiana election. He said Mr. Call had, in a moment of warmth or heat, so far forgot himself as to cause to be printed an apparently carefully drawn up statement, imputing to the senator from another state and in new language, a crime—a concerted and systematized crime. He thought that the senator from Florida had so far transgressed the right of correction, and even of embroidery, that he ought to stand up like a man and take whatever was implied in the resolution, saying that that sort of things should not be done any more.

Mr. Gray, a Democratic member of the committee on privileges and elections, defended the action of the committee in reporting the resolution, and said that he had supposed it would have been accepted on both sides as the most orderly and the best considered way of dealing with the subject matter. It was not intended, he said, to imply a scintilla of censure on the senator from Florida.

Mr. Pugh, another Democratic member of the committee concurred in what

Mr. Gray had said. Mr. Jones, of Arkansas, stated he heard the remarks of Mr. Call, and that he remembered distinctly his charging the senator from New Hampshire with responsibility for the murder of hundreds of women and children in the southern states.

Mr. Evarts, a member of the committee, defended the resolution as reported, and said that the senate could not afford to be indifferent to such an interference with the absolute correctness and reliability of the record.

Mr. Vance, a Democrat of the com-mittee, also defended the action but said that nothing was further from his intention than to cast any reflection on the senator from Florida. Mr. Vance spoke of the constant attacks in the senate upon the people of the southern states and remided senators that they could aot always expect the representatives of those states to imitate the wisdom of that great American philosopher, Josh Billings, who said that the little things of life were more troublesome than the great things, and that fleas had given him a great deal more trouble than elephants.

Mr. Call submitted some remarks in his own vindication. and quoted some of Mr. Chandler's expressions in the same debate, imputing to him the possibility of provoking homicide and adding to "the silent voters of Florida," and assured the senate that he had no idea of middle its rules. violating its rules.

A vote was then taken on the resolution, and resulted, yeas, 27; nays, 11. No quorum. Messrs. Gray, Pugh, Turpie and Vance, Democrats, voted in the affirmative.

Without disposing of the matter the senate at 5:20 p. m. adjourned.

House Proceedings.

Washington, March 12.—The house passed the bills to provide for the erection of public buildings at the following points: Cedar Rapids, Iowa; Chester, Pa.; Columbus, Ga.; Atchison, Kan.; Alexandria, La.; Hamilton, Mo.; Lynn, Mass.; Lafayette, Ind.; Baton Rouge, La. and Fremont, Neb.; also bills providing for increase of the limit of cost of public buildings at Newark, N. J.; Scranton, Pa.; Troy, N. Y.; Dallas, Tex., and Springfield, Mo. The measures passed involve an expenditure of $1,passed involve an expenditure of $1,-845,000.

Mr. Enloe, of Tennessee, moved to discharge the committee on invalid pen-sions from the further consideration as a resolution calling on the secretary of the interior for information relating to the administration of the pension office under ex-Commissioner Tanner, and what steps had been taken to recover money paid to pension office employes who were illegally rerated.

Mr. Enloe said the country desired this information, but that the committee had taken no action on the resolution which he had offered early in the session. Tanner had kept the promises he had made on the stump and the country wanted to know the reasons why he had been kicked out.

Mr. Morrell, of Kansas, chairman, and Chipman, of Michigan, a member of the committee, said they had never before heard of the resolution and that the clerk of the committee said it had never been presented to him. In view of these statements Mr. Enloe withdrew his mo-

Mr. Baker, of New York, from the committee on territories, reported the bill for the admission of Wyoming and asked for its immediate consideration.

Mr. Springer raised the question of consideration and opposed it, with a motion to adjourn, which was defeated. Finally the house took up the bill in committee of the whole, and pending discussion the committee rose and the bouse, at 5:20 p. m., adjourned.

KINCAID'S VICTIM.

Death Comes to Ex-Congressman Taulbee After Ten Days' Suffering.

WASHINGTON, March 12.-Ex-Congressman Taulbee, of Kentucky, who was shot by Correspondent Kincaid on Friday, the last day of February, died yesterday morning at 5 o'clock. His death was due directly to the shot. Kincaid has given himself into the hands of the authorities and will be kept in prison until after his trial. The offense is not

THE SHOOTING OF TAULBEE.

Taulbee did not make an ante-mortem statement, but he expressed the wish on three or four occasions during the past week that the law might take its course in the event of his death, so Kincaid will be prosecuted. His plea will be self-defense. He says he can prove that when Taulbee first assaulted him at the capitol he warned him to arm himself, and that when the two men met on the stairway an hour subsequently Taulbee raised his hand to strike again. This latter part, however, will have to be proven by ex-Doorkeeper Donelson, who is a personal friend of bo h men.

There is universal regret over Mr. Taulbee's death. He was a man without bitter enemies and it was hoped that he would recover, in which event it was understood that Kincaid would not be prosecuted. There is now much sympathy for both men, although the great preponderence of sympathy is on the side of Kincaid, who has conducted himself in a very quiet and gentlemanly way since the fatal affair.

Arranging a Wolf Hunt.

MT. PLEASANT, Iowa, March 12.-A conference of sportsmen and farmers was held here Friday to complete the arrangements for a big wolf hunt to take place on Saturday. The farmers have suffered severely during the winter by the depredations of these animals, who have multiplied four-fold in number since last fall, and a vigorous effort to exterminate them will be made.

Fire Still Raging in the Wrecked Mine.

NO HOPE FOR THE ENTOMBED MEN

It is Now Believed That at Least One Hundred and Fifty Lives Were Lost. Crusade Against Germans in Paris. Other Foreign News.

LONDON, March 12.-The fire which is raging in the wrecked Morsa colliery, in Glamorgan, Wales, is rapidly spread ing to all parts of the mine, and the recovery of the bodies still entombed is regarded as hopeless. The latest estimate of the number killed is 150.

Four of the miners who were en tombed by the explosion have made their escape from the pit without assist-ance. They crawled through a crevice between the roof of the mine and the debris. They report that they passed over a number of dead men lying in heaps, and say they believe that none of those in the pit is still alive.

Dynamite Guns.

BIRMINGHAM, March 12 .- The dynamite gun and torpedo thrower in course of construction here by Lieut. James W. Graydon, late of the United States navy, is attracting considerable attention. The gun is of fifteen inches calibre, and is expected to be capable of throwing 600 pounds of dynamics a distance of three pounds of dynamite a distance of three miles. A public demonstration will be made early in May under the auspices of the English government. Official representatives of Russia, Italy, Spain, Turkey and Roumania are awaiting the result of the experiment with much interest.

Crusade Against Germans in Paris. LONDON, March 12.-A new crusade has been inaugurated against the Germans in Paris, and they will have a very uncomfortable time until the periodical alarm about them dies away. They now mostly represent themselves as Alsatans, Swiss and Belgians, and generally manage to avert suspicion by the intense French feeling they evince. The very best waiters in the best restaurants in Paris are Germans, and, contrary to the French, they are decidedly not spies in the employ of Bismarck.

A LIBERAL GIFT.

An Indianapolis Man Gives a College $100,000.

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., March 12 .-Simon Yandes, of Indianapolis, proposed to several Indianapolis gentlemen that he would give $20,000 to a new library building for Wabash college, in this city, if they would give similar sums. Two gentlemen each offered $5,000 and others many yet come forward.

In the meantime Mr. Yandes had concluded to do something on his own account, and yesterday he wrote three checks amounting to $50,000, payable to the treasurer of Wabash college. Twenty thousand dollars go to the general endowment, which makes that fund exceed $200,000 and $30,000 are for the new library building.

Plans of the new building are in the hands of an architect. It will be a fireproof structure of brick and stone. Mr. Yandes gave $10,000 to the general endowment fund in 1888, and last October endowed the department of English literature with $40,000. Altogether he has given the college $100,000.

Vice President Morton in Florida.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., March 12.-Vice President Morton and wife were entertained by the city Monday, having been escorted from St. Augustine by a committee of citizens. G. A. R. MEETING.

Eleventh Annual Convention Held at Indianapolis.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., March 12 .- The state encampment, G. A. R., convened yesterday in its eleventh a session with nearly 600 delegates in attendance. Commander Travis delivered his annual address, showing that there are now 25,165 members in the organization, an increase of 1,544 in the past year. This association has $2,865, and during the year $772 was sent to the Johnstown sufferers, $305 to orphans' homes, and $5,357 was expended in general relief.

The commander made a strong appeal in favor of liberal pension legislation.

Gen. Alger followed in a brief address, in which he said that he wanted it understood that he was speaking to Grand Army men and not to the public. The injunction to secrecy, however, was disregarded by the veterans, and his remarks were fully reported on the outside. He said that he was strongly in favor of a service pension law, and gave the Ingalls and Cheadle bills his unqualified indersement.

He criticised the action of congress severely, and declared that there had always been concerted action in that body to defeat pension legislation, and that it was time for a change. He recommended concerted action on the part of the ex-soldiers, and said that congress could not afford to ignore their demands. Alger's position on this question appears to have been in doubt, and his utterances were loudly applauded.

The camp fire was held last night, and Alger and others made speeches. The election of officers will occur to-day, and candidates for commander are quite numerous. Yesterday G. R. Stormont, of Princeton, who has been so long at the head of the Service Pension associa-tion, announced himself for the place, and his vote will be a fine test of the sentiments of the Grand Army on the sentiments of the Grand Army on the question. CLEVELAND, O., March 11 .- The opening session of the Brotherhood base ball meeting was called to order in the Weddell house promptly at 10 o'clock. Another McGregor Child Dies of Diphtheria at Zanesville, O.

ZANESVILLE, O., March 12.-Another McGregor child died of diphtheria, making the family carried ber of the family carried weeks. People all over the city have become alarmed, and the board of health held a special secret meeting last night.

Dr. Kennedy, who attended the Mc-Gregor family was also physician to the family of Police Lieutenant Brown, whose wife and child died last Wednesday. The cause of Mrs. Brown's death was given as tolsilitis, but four cases of diphtheria have since developed in families of relatives, who were intimate with the family and were at the funeral.

The board of health is being severely denounced for its conduct of diphtheria cases, and last night it decided to place all the blame on the bringing of the body of the Tuttle child from Chicago under a false death certificate, in December. Undertakers, however, do not endorse this, and Undertaker Bateman told your correspondent that he had buried Charles Geyer last November, and the young man had the worst case of diphtheria he ever saw, as his neck was fairly putrid. He was buried in the country and the funeral was public.

After that the five Garner children died in Perry township. Of forty-five city cases reported to the board of health in four months there have been fifteen deaths, and Officer Sutton told your cor-respondent last week that only six were traceable to infection brought from Chicago. During the prevalence of the disease two years ago diphtheria developed only in houses on certain streets where well water was used, and the same rule is almost invariable now, for where there is exception contagion can be traced.
